TARGET SILVIA STABILE JOINS AS SENIOR COUNSEL

Milan, 1st October 2024 – TARGET announces Silvia Stabile will be joining the firm as Senior Counsel from 01 October 2024.

Silvia Stabile has gained significant experience in art law and regulations governing and protecting all forms of creative expression, having collaborated for numerous years with leading institutions and private clients. She has expertly advised them on the management of public collections and private and family pieces. Silvia has worked closely with a number of international luxury groups and Italian industrial players in relation to the management of the curation of historical corporate and museum art collections, the sponsorship of cultural assets as well as copyright and all original works of authorship/intellectual property aspects.

In response to the new entry, TARGET partners Alfredo Malguzzi and Pietro Villa commented "Silvia has notable experience in a field that the firm sees as key for its growth in terms of private clients. Moreover, Silvia's experience and know-how expands on the firm's expertise for clients in relation to tax, asset and wealth management and inheritance and succession matters".

Alfredo Malguzzi and Pietro Villa also stated: "We are delighted to have Silvia join the firm as Senior Counsel to our team dedicated to Private Clients. The firm is consolidating the advisory support we offer to clients in this sophisticated sector, considering also that art in general constitutes an increasingly valuable asset class".

Silvia Stabile stated: "I am very happy to be joining TARGET. The firm's reputation and the scope of legal and tax advice available to Private Clients in terms of generational continuity and safeguarding family assets and estates is a fantastic opportunity for developing my area of expertise in the art and cultural heritage sectors with my new colleagues".
